ALLIED is sent out this week to a great number of a sample copy.
We are glad to hear that you are

LOCAL NEWS.

We find it impossible to notice all advertisers this week, but will certainly do so next issue.

County court is in session at Campton this week, Judge Swango presiding. We published full proceedings next week.

Dr. W. L. Giverson, "the mountain doctor," and Rev. G. Ragan commenced a protracted meeting at Campton Monday night last.

Sam. B. Smith, our efficient assessor, taken 225 lists, 88 deaths, 52 marriages, and 264 births since January 12th, and still the good work goes on.

"We," a correspondent at Louisville, writes: "Is that fellow Watkins dead?" Not being able to answer, we refer him to J. T. Day, who keeps a mortuary record, for the desired information.

Dr. Thomas, of this place, is now in charge of the Champion mills across the river, with John Wilson as first lieutenant. They are doing custom grinding for the whole country and sawing logs.

Rev. G. Ragan recently held a meeting at Campton which was attended with usual interest. There were forty-two sessions and about twenty-five conversions. All denominations participated.

Uncle John reports that Uncle Trimble purchased a fine gray mare last Wednesday. Whether she is a trotter, thoroughbred, deponent sayeth any rate this office has no corn.

Rev. G. Ragan, of Campton circuit, will preach at the M. E. church this week, on Sunday, at 11 A. M. and 2:30 master, is in Louisville, a witness in case of the U. S. vs. Andy Hurst, and will take money from the there, as a witness.

T. Day, of this place, sold on Wednesday last week one yoke of two-and-a-half year old steers to E. F. Cecil, of Morgan, for cash. Considering their age and present scarcity of forage of all this is considered a good sale.

Charlotte Little, living on Lacey three miles from here, was seventy-one on the 25th of December.
She has given birth to twenty-two children and now has living one hundred and eighty grandchildren and great grand-physicians read, especially those who are habit of going beyond the limits of their own county.

He will look over his stock, and if you can do as well with him elsewhere, and we are of the opinion that you can.

43 legal voters; 3 dogs for taxation.

D. S. Godsey, of Hazel Green, is in town looking after his interests as a candidate to represent this legislative district in the next general assembly. It is time that all who intend to enter into the contest were making themselves known, that the people may know who they have to select from.

C. M. Hanks resigned the office of police judge of the town of Campion, to take effect March 2nd, and the board of trustees recommended A. J. Asbury to the governor for appointment to fill the vacancy.

Work is progressing slowly on the court house, but it will be completed in a short time—as soon as the weather will admit.

Died—Feb. 25th, S. P. Kincaid, of pneumonia fever. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss.

SPRADING.

Mr. T. P. Collingworth is about to leave here and go back to his farm, near Frenchburg. He met with quite a loss last week. One of his cows froze to death. He expects to remove to his new home in the early part of next month.

H. D. Spradling has not yet finished his mill. Owing to sickness in Mr. Damon's family, he has not been able to get here to finish it. Mr. Spradling hopes, however, to be running in full blast in a few days.

THE HERALD is the popular topic of conversation here. All hope it may reach here soon. I expect to get you quite a list of subscribers shortly.

J. M. Brown's daughter, Miss Rachel, is seriously ill, but hopes are entertained of her speedy recovery.

Mrs. H. D. Spradling has been quite ill for a few days past, but is much better at this writing.

David Lawson, our blacksmith, is suffering with a bad case of sore eyes.
We hope to have him back again in six times a week in the near future.

I will keep you posted as to what is going on in this part of Wolfe.

Spradling & Hanks have just received a large new stock of goods.

Trade is quite dull here; not much money in circulation.

The roads of this section are in a very bad condition.

RED RIVER.

John DeBord is at present in the neighborhood, paying for the stock he bought some three weeks ago, and he talks of buying more. This is a good place to buy, for food is scarce and the farmers want to sell.

There is a great deal of moving going on in this neighborhood. Corn being a scarce article, the tenants are seeking localities of more plenty—out of the frying pan into the fire, maybe.

Assessor Sam. B. Smith is calling on the boys in this neighborhood to list their property for 1885. Sam. is the right man in the right place.

Married—On February 15th, Calvin Bradley to Miss Jane Elam, both of this county.

The democrats of this section are for D. S. Godsey for representative.

Born—To the wife of W. H. Walter, on Feb. 19th a girl.

Wheat is in a bad plight. On account of the cold weather and continued rains, freezing and thawing, it has pulled out of the ground, so that we cannot expect a very heavy crop this year.

The stock in this "neck of the woods" is very poor, owing to a scarcity of corn and fodder.

The farmers here have done no work yet towards the coming crops.

Business at this place is exceedingly dull.

MORGAN COUNTY.

MAYTOWN.

The church building set on foot by the different denominations of the town, passes into the hands of the M. E. church south for completion, with the understanding that it is to be used by any protestant denomination when not occupied by the above named church.

W. W. Swango, of Wolfe, who recently married the daughter of Henry Halsey, moved to Bath, near Owensville.
He is a young man of considerable push and go-ahead-iveness, and will doubtless make his mark in the famous "blue grass region."

Eli H. S. Helton had a very interesting entertainment at the close of his school on Big branch a few days ago.
The pupils acquitted themselves with honor. Mr. Helton is regarded as one of the best teachers of Wolfe.

The people anxiously await the appearance of THE HAZEL GREEN HERALD.
This paper evidently will meet a long felt want in Eastern Kentucky. The best wishes of the people of the mountains go with the paper.

Mrs. C. W. Clark departed this life a short time since. She was an acceptable member of the M. E. church south, adhered to the doctrines of Christ by holy living, died in full triumph of faith, and rests in peace.

The temperance organization here is doing a good work. Over sixty persons have taken the pledge. At the next meeting speeches will be made by Rev.
W. L. Stamper, E. B. May and C. W.
Clark.

Miss Rebecca A. Kash's select school closed one day last week. This being her first school, it is due her to say that the people were delighted with her manner of teaching.

J. C. Gillespie, formerly of Virginia, is visiting friends and relatives of this place. He contemplates spending the summer in Kentucky.

Mrs. M. C. Bailey is quite ill. Dr. J.
F. Tutt, of Stillwater, and Dr. B. F.
Dixon, of this place, are giving her medical aid.

E. B. May has built a large tobacco warehouse, and is receiving an immense amount of the stuff.

Born—To the wife of E. B. May, a son, Percy Emmerson. B. is happy. Let us have peace.

J. Press Powers, of Salversville, is spending a few days with his father, Louis Powers.

Thos. M. Canoy, of Mt. Sterling, has been spending the winter with his mother at this place.

W. S. May, of Dakota, is visiting his brother, E. B. May, of this place.

DUSTER.

GRASSY.

F. M. Kemplin and Jesse Oldfields will start their distillery the 2d day of March.
I trust all who deal in the d—l's coffee will sink beneath the resurrection morning.

Twelve months ago we had the banner locality of old Morgan, but since this drink has been manufactured in our county, you can hear the screams of the intoxicated and the report of the pistol, not only in daylight but at all hours of the night. Shame on the dealers.

Born—To the wife of J. T. Amburn, a Press Taulbee; to the wife of A. B. Hale, a dish washer; to the wife of Garrard Carpenter, a Cleveland, I presume.

There has been considerable movement among the log men during the past week.
Teams of all kinds have been putting in close time.

Corn and hay are scarce on Grassy.
Corn is 80 cents per bushel, and hay and other roughness bring the price asked.

We are proud that Hazel Green has offered us THE HERALD—a home paper—every family should patronize it.

J. B. Oakley, Mrs. G. G. Ragan and Mrs. James Cecil have been on the sick list, but are convalescent.

Farmers are looking forward for spring to put forth their bright sunny rays.

C. W. Cecil has been very low with fever (Texas fever).

There are too many idle boys in our county.

MENIFEE COUNTY.

CORNWELL.

S. S. Moore has received a letter from John C. Andrews, of Xenia, Ohio, authorizing him to take charge of and operate the coal mines at Rothwell station, known as the Campbell & Lindsay coal works. This will afford profitable employment for several hands, and no doubt "Sin" will run things to the very best advantage.

There are two things needed badly to finish our little town, viz. A good school and a blacksmith shop. Mr. Stamper is thinking of erecting a fine shop. Mr.
Stamper is a good workman, and no doubt would do a paying business.

The lime kiln at this place will resume operations again in a few days, and times have already begun to brighten, and we predict a livelier and more prosperous spring and summer than has been witnessed for several years.

May THE HERALD live long and prosperous, and enjoy a long list of "pay up" subscribers, is the hearty wish of your correspondent.

There has been a postoffice established at Chambers station in this county. The name is Serena. Geo. C. Stephens is the postmaster.

Some wily thief stole 50 pounds of good tobacco from James Hodge, which he had raised.

Madam Rumor says there is to be a wedding in our vicinity soon—R. L. and F. S.

Thornton Hedges and Mrs. Frank P.
Flinchum are on the sick list this week.
No one in this section will attend the inauguration at Washington.

F. M. Hutchinson and wife have separated—cause unknown.

SHORTFELLOW.

POMROYTON.

The wheat is badly froze out. Grain of all kinds is scarce, and so is roughness for stock.

The sunshine of the last few days has revived the spirits of our farmers.

Owen Bowman is happy. Its a boy, going to raise tobacco.

J. H. Childers has purchased a fine lot of cattle.

Delivering tobacco is the order of the day.

BREATHITT COUNTY.

LOST CREEK.

The raftsmen of this vicinity are very anxious about their logs. There are quite a number of logs and rafts frozen up in the ice, which is six and seven inches thick. If there should come a sudden thaw, the people here would be very much damaged, for they are entirely dependent on the sales of their logs.

F. M. Day will move his steam saw and grist mill to our little village in a few weeks.

Farmers are complaining about their wheat and the scarcity of corn and bacon.

There are several persons in this neighborhood who are on the sick list.

MURDER IN MT. STERLING.

John Gill Killed and Jas. Howard W. son Wounded.

The Winchester Democrat says: "At 2:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, (Feb. 23.) Alvin Bowling, of Farmers station, Rowan county, shot and fatally wounded John Gill, a deputy marshal at Mt. Sterling. Howard Wilson was also shot by Bowling in the hand. It seems that Bowling interfered with the arrest of a man named Boyd, whom the marshal was endeavoring to take to jail. Bowling is the same man who took John Martin out of jail in this city some time since and suffered him to be murdered on the cars at Farmers station. Bowling is in jail." James Howard Wilson, the wounded man mentioned here is from Hazel Green. We learn from a private source that no bones were broken by the ball passing through his hand, and that, though a painful wound, no serious trouble is anticipated. Gill died the night of the shooting. He was a married man, and leaves a wife and three children.
He came from Fleming county. Bowling was sent to jail at Lexington last Saturday for safe keeping, the authorities at Mt. Sterling fearing that a mob would hang him, so incensed were the people over Gill's untimely death.

It is stated that Bowling will plead insanity—emotional insanity, perhaps. Insanity like his, superinduced by red-eye whisky, can be easily cured. A rope, with a Bowling at one end and a good sheriff at the other will do the work speedily—a kind of drop game, you see.
